

INDONESIA

CMS missionaries teach people in Indonesia about God. There are lots of different traditional religions, but something wonderful is that CMS missionaries are allowed to trust and serve the Lord Jesus and sometimes they can tell others about him too. As well as teaching people about God, they also try to help others to teach about God as well by looking at his word, the Bible.

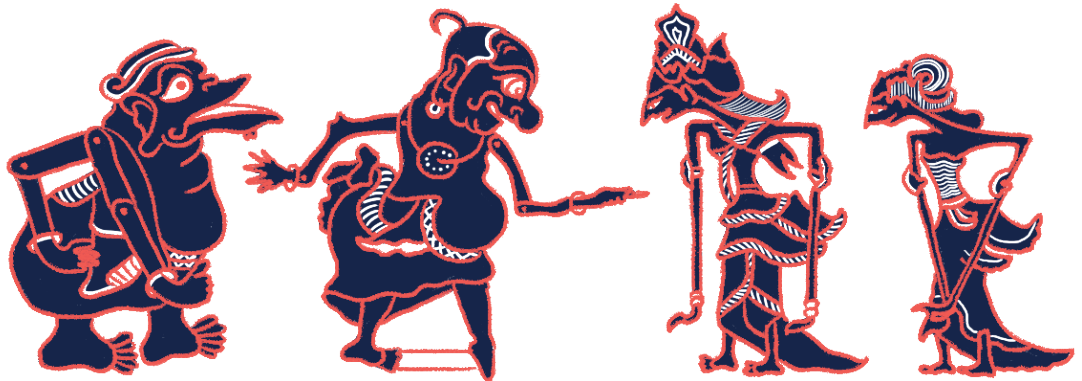

ACTIVITY

Wayang is an Indonesian shadow puppet show that recounts epic Javanese stories.

TIME TO MAKE!

You will need:

- Lamp
- Cardboard
- Sticky tape
- Pencil
- Scissors
- Skewers
- Plain Wall

Steps:

1. Choose what type of puppets you want. How about your favourite Bible character?
2. Draw outlines for your puppets on the cardboard and cut them out.
3. Use sticky tape to attach a skewer to the back of each of your puppets.
4. Put the lamp on the floor or on a table. Point it at the wall and turn it on. Turn off other lights and close the curtains.
5. Hold your puppets between the light and the wall. Can you see a shadow on the wall? Move the puppets between the light and the wall to make the shadow different sizes.

Did you know?

Mount Ijen is a volcano on the island of Java that erupts blue flames!

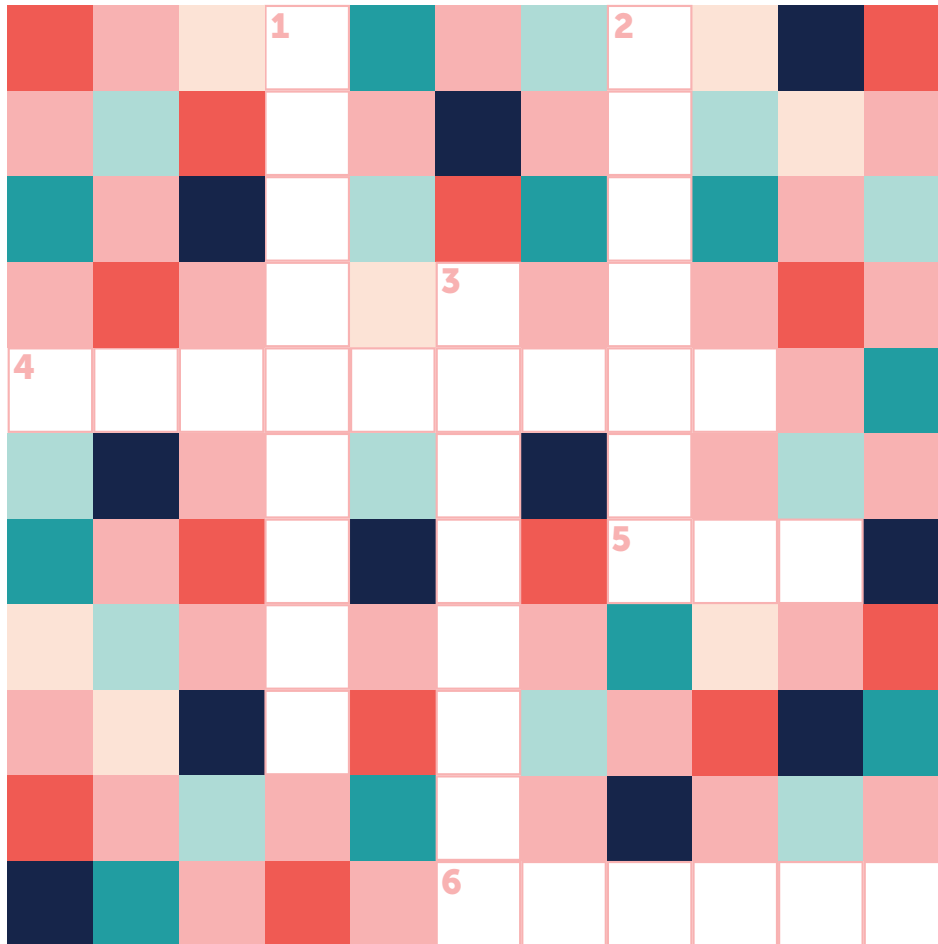

Fun fact:

The Balinese people believe that souls travel to the afterlife through ceremonies involving burning paper bulls. Praise God that we already have eternal life through him!

PRAY

Thank God

that the little local church in Indonesia keeps on growing.

Ask God

that Indonesian Christians can be bold in speaking about their faith.

Whenever you see your shadow, pray for Indonesia!
