

SOUTH ASIA

CMS missionaries teach at local schools in South Asia. CMS missionaries are thankful to God that he helps them to keep trusting in Jesus, and that he allows them to talk about him with their local friends. CMS missionaries run a local school in South Asia, and they continue to always tell their students and work friends who Jesus is.

ACTIVITY

People in South Asia love eating hot curries, which is why they love serving creamy raita with it. Raita is a classic condiment filled with fresh and healthy ingredients that cool your tongue. Pair your next curry with your own home made raita!

RECIPE:

You will need:

- 1 Lebanese cucumber
- 250 ml Greek yoghurt
- 1 tsp ground cumin
- 2 tbs mint (finely chopped)
- Salt (to taste)

Method:

1. Remove the ends and slice the cucumber in half. Using a teaspoon, scrape out the seeds and grate the remaining flesh.
2. Place yoghurt in a bowl and stir in cucumber, cumin and mint. Add salt to taste.

Remember to ask an adult if you need help!

Did you know?

South Asia is home to the largest Hindu population and over 200 million Muslims.

Fun fact:

One fifth of the world's population live in South Asia!

PRAY

Thank God

that CMS missionaries have been able to read God's word with people in South Asia.

Ask God

to find other people to come to South Asia to keep teaching about Jesus.

Whenever you eat a cucumber, pray for South Asia!
