SERVING GOD IN CHILE

Hello

We live in the capital city of Chile called Santiago, which is surrounded by very big mountains. One of the mountains is more than twice as high as the biggest mountain in Australia and it has snow on it all year round. We're working at a Bible college, helping people learn how to teach God's Word better so that they can teach people how to talk to people about Jesus in their own language, which is Spanish.

ALL YEAR PRAYER

Thank God that many people here are learning how to teach God's Word in their own language.

Ask God for the church to grow, and for more people to talk to their friends about Jesus.
