

The United Arab Emirates (UAE) is a small country in the Middle East, which has a big city in it, called Dubai. CMS workers are thankful that they can serve in Dubai. They get to share about Jesus with people from countries all over the world who have come there to work.

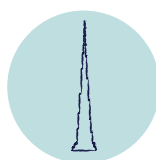

ACTIVITY

Most of the UAE consists of flat stretches of sandy desert. Complete the picture by drawing what you think you might see in the desert.

Did you know?

In the south of the UAE are some of the world's largest sand dunes.

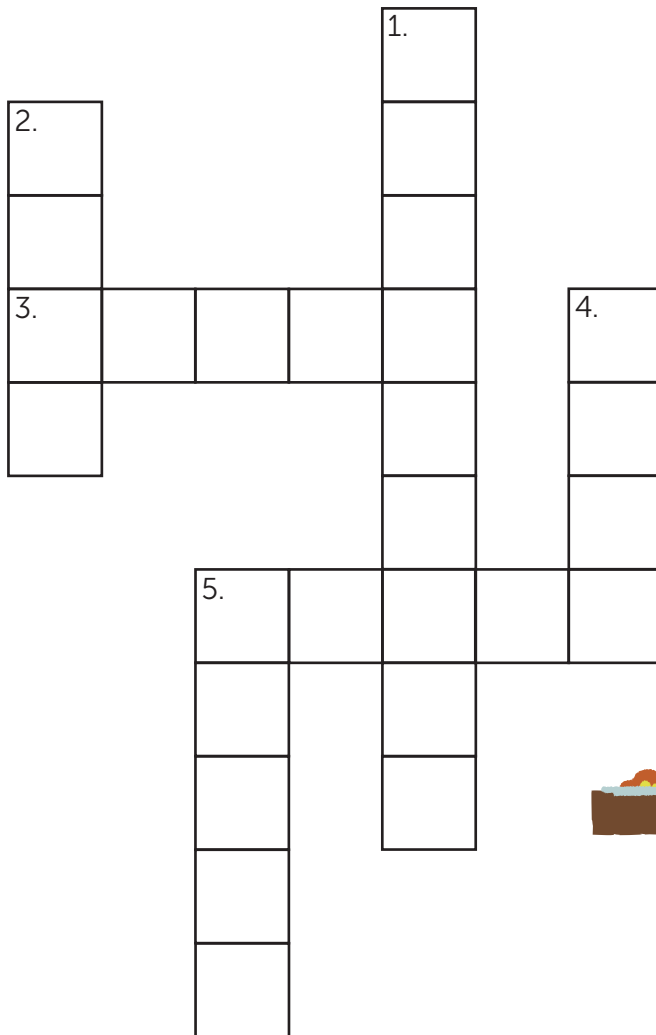

Fun fact:

The Khalifa Tower in Dubai is currently the world's tallest building, rising 829m high. It was completed in 2009.
